

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

11-g. Tract

Psalm 91

(†Flex) T. 1a

1. a He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High,
 b* say to the Lord: "My ref - uge and for - tress,

2. a For he has set me free from the snare of the fowl - er,
 b* He will shelter you with his pin - ions,

3. a His faith - fulness will shield you as with a buck - ler,
 b* You shall fear neither the arrow that flies by (†day,) nor the conspiracy that stalks in the dark - ness,

4. a A thou - sand will fall at your side, and ten thou - sand at your right,
 b* For to his angels he has given a com - mand - ment con - cern - ing you,

5. a In their hands they will bear you up,
 b* Upon the asp and the ba - sil - isk you will tread,

6. a Be - cause he has put his hope in me, I will de - liv - er him;
 b* He shall call out to me, and I shall an - swer him;

7. I will rescue him and honor (†him;) with long days will I sat - is - fy him;

1. a who abide in the shade of the Al - might - y,
 b* my God in whom I trust."

2. a and under his wings you and from cut - ting words.
 b* will find ref - uge.

3. a you will not suffer the ter - rors of the night.
 b* nor destruction, nor the de - mon of noon - day

4. a but you shall re - main un - harmed.
 b* to keep you in all your ways.

5. a lest you dash your foot a - gainst a stone.
 b* and trample the lion and the drag - on.

6. a I will protect him, be - cause he knows my name.
 b* I will be with him in trib - u - la - tion.

7. and I shall let him see my sa - ving pow'r.
