16-d. Tract

1. a. My God, my God, look upon me, why have you abandoned me? |
My words of sin have drawn me far from salvation.
b. * O my God, I call by day, and you give no reply;
I call by night and not without reason.
2. a. Yet, you who dwell in the sanctuary; | you are the praise of Israel.
b.* Our fathers placed their hope in you; | they trusted and you delivered them.
3. a. They cried out to you and they were saved; |
they put their hope in you and they were not confounded.
b.* But I am a worm and no man; | scorned by men and despised by the people.
4. a. All those who seek me scoff at me, |
they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:
b.* "He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him, |
let him rescue him, for he loves him."
5. a. And so they looked and gazed upon (†me);
they divided my garments amongst themselves, |
and for my raiment they cast lots.
b.* Save me from the mouth of the lion; |
my afflicted soul from the horn of the unicorn.
6. a. You who fear the Lord, praise him! | All you sons of Jacob, glorify him!
b. A future generation shall be announced on behalf of the Lord, and the heavens will declare his justice,
c.* unto a nation yet to be born, | and whom the Lord has prepared.
