

THE EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT

20-1. Reading VI: Canticle

V. Deuteronomy 32: 1-4

1. a. Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
 b. Let my speech be longed for as the rain
 c.* Yes, and like snow upon the dry herb,

2. a. A - scribe greatness to our God;
 b.* God is faithful, there is no iniquity in him;

1. a. let the earth hearken to the words of my mouth.
 b. let my words come down like the dew, like show - ers up - on the grass.
 c.* for I will invoke the Name of the Lord.

2. a. the works of God are true and all his ways are jus - tice.
 b.* the Lord is just and ho - ly.

 Alternate SATB setting: versicles 1c and 2b*

1c. Yes, and like snow up - on the dry herb; for I will invoke the Name of the Lord.
 2b. God is faithful, there is no iniquity in him; the Lord is just and holy.