

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

56-i. Communion

R. You' have com - mand - ed that your pre - cepts be di - li - gent - ly kept.

Psalm 119

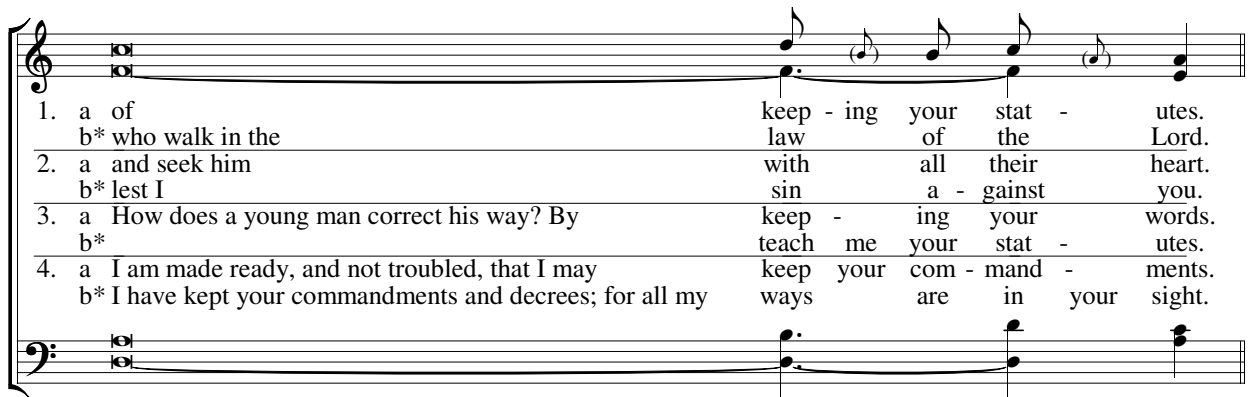

T. 5

1. a O that my ways be guid - ed
b* Blessèd are they whose way is blame - less,

2. a Bless - èd are they who keep his de - crees,
b* Your word I treasure in my heart,

3. a I will keep your statutes; do not ever for - sake me;
b* I have declared my ways, and you have heard me;

4. a I have pondered my ways, and turned my feet unto your de - crees.
b* Redeem me from the oppression of men, that I may keep your pre - cepts.

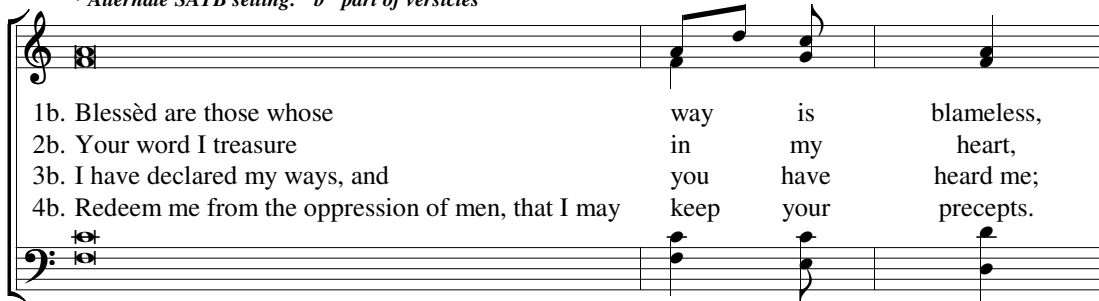

1. a of keep - ing your stat - utes.
b* who walk in the law of the Lord.

2. a and seek him with all their heart.
b* lest I sin a - gainst you.

3. a How does a young man correct his way? By keep - ing your words.
b* teach me your stat - utes.

4. a I am made ready, and not troubled, that I may keep your com - mand - ments.
b* I have kept your commandments and decrees; for all my ways are in your sight.

* Alternate SATB setting: "b" part of verses

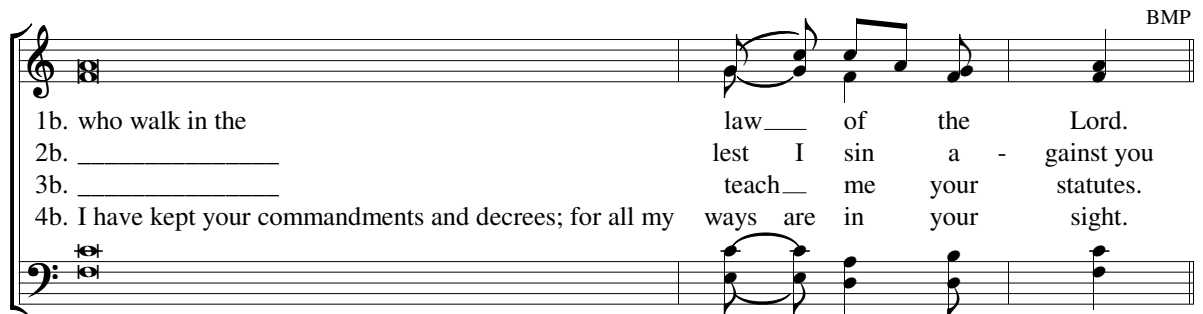

1b. Blessèd are those whose way is blameless,

2b. Your word I treasure in my heart,

3b. I have declared my ways, and you have heard me;

4b. Redeem me from the oppression of men, that I may keep your precepts.

BMP

1b. who walk in the law of the Lord.

2b. lest I sin a - gainst you

3b. teach me your statutes.

4b. I have kept your commandments and decrees; for all my ways are in your sight.