

Week III of Easter - Communion

Tuesday

Acts 7: 56

I see the heav - ens o - pen-ing, and Je-sus stand-ing at the right hand of God, al - le - lu - ia.

Acts 7: 59, 60; Psalm 119 (118): 1. 78, 86, 96. 150, 153, 157. 161, 173.

Repeat bars apply to verses 2 and 3 only

T. 1a; additional music, BMP

1. Lord Je - sus, re - - - - - ceive my spir - it;
 2. Let the proud be put to shame, for they have done un - just - ly to - wards me;
 All your stat - utes are truth;
 3. They who persecute me have drawn nigh to in - i - qui - ty;
 See my affliction and de - liv - er me;
 4. Prin - ces have perse - - - - - cu - ted me with - out cause;

1. hold not this sin against them, for they know not what they do.
 2. but I will ponder your com - mand - ments.
 help me, for they have wrongly per - se - cu - ted me.
 3. they are far from your law.
 I have not for - - - - - got - ten your law.
 4. and my heart re - veres your word.

May be sung in SATB

1. Blessèd are they whose way is blameless, who walk in the law_ of the Lord. **℞
 2. I have seen an end to all per - se - cution; exceedingly broad is your com-mand. **℞
 3. Many are those who persecute me and_ af - flict me; I have not de - clined your de - crees. **℞
 4. Let your hand be read-y to save me; for I have cho - sen your precepts. **℞