

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (I)

R. Bless - ed the peo - ple the Lord has cho - sen to be his own.

V. Psalm 33 (32): 10-11. 12-13. 14-15.

1. The Lord brings to nought the plans of the nation; he foils the de - signs of peoples.
 2. Blessèd the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen for his own in-heritance.
 3. From his fixed throne he be - holds all who dwell on the earth,

R.
 1. But the plan of the Lord stands for ever; the design of his heart, through all gen - e - rations.
 2. From heaven the Lord__ looks down; he sees all man - kind.
 3. he who fashioned the heart__ of each, he who knows all__ their works.

Uses: Pentecost (Extended Vigil, after Reading I); Week I (Friday II)