

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (III)

R. Bless - ed the peo - ple the Lord has cho - sen to be his own.

∇. Psalm 33 (32): 12-13. 18-19. 20, 22.

1. Blessèd the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen for his
2. See, the eyes of the Lord are up - on those who fear him, upon those who
3. Our soul waits for the Lord, who is our

1. own in - heritance. From heaven the Lord looks down;
2. hope for his kindness, to deliver them from death,
3. help and our shield. May your kindness, O Lord, be up - on us,

R.
1. he sees all man - kind.
2. and preserve them in spite of famine.
3. who have put our hope in you.

Use: Week XII (Monday I)